(Official Ballot Argument for Proposition 1-A)

Proposition 1-A puts into effect the recommendations of California's blue-ribbon Constitution Revision Commission to clarify, modernize and simplify the State's unwieldy, outmoded Constitution.

Providing for legislative, executive and judicial reform, 1-A has the enthusiastic support of both political parties, business, labor, farm leaders, educators, judges, lawyers, liberals and conservatives.

Dills Backers Predict an Overwhelming Vote Edge

Competent political observers predict the election of Judge Ralph C. Dills as State Senator in the 32nd District by an overwhelming majority on Nov. 8, his campaign headquarters reported this week.

This victory prediction is based on recognition of the clean, intelligent, and positive campaign the popular jurist has conducted coupled with the outstanding qualifications of Dills, the announcement said.

Physician In Charge Appointed

The appointment of Dr. I. Jay Dunn as physician-in-charge of the South Bay Mental Health Service has been announced by Supervisor Burton W. Chace.

The local service, recently established by the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health, will be offered to the 750,000 residents of the Torrance and Beach Cities area.

Dr. Dunn and his staff will first conduct studies to determine the mental health needs of area residents and adapt the service to community needs. Plans include the integration of county service with existing treatment centers.

Prior to this appointment, Dr. Dunn was director of the Mental Health Clinic at Los Angeles County General Hospital and assistant clinical professor of psychiatry at the California College of Medicine.

Teenagers Will Study Problems

A proposal to put the best teenage minds to work helping solve problems which affect teenagers has been advanced by Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

The Board of Supervisors unanimously adopted Hahn's motion to establish a County-wide Commission on Youth. Each Supervisor will appoint three citizens between the ages of 14 and 19 and one adult interested in youth from his district to the Commission.

"We must take advantage of this large, untapped resource of information and thought to deal effectively with many problems of our community's young people," Hahn said.

The Youth Commission will provide a logical place to tackle the dropout problem (in some areas as many as 4 of every 10 who start school never finish) and employment (more than 20,000 out-of-school teenagers without jobs).

organized labor, business, industry and management groups, Mexican-American Political Association, and the major associations of teachers, County, and State public employees.

The Allied Health Professions consisting of representatives of the legislative committees of eleven groups devoted to the public health, as well as, the California League of Senior Citizens also are among the numerous other supporters of Dills for Senator.

In commenting on the unusual display of district-wide and organization support Dills stated:

"I AM VERY grateful for the overwhelming district-wide support of every group, association and organization devoted to the cause of good government.
